

I'm not a robot

The Standards of Practice are being updated! The Standards of Practice play a key role in healthcare regulation and public health. This is a lecture from our Ethics & Business class covering the need for a dive into the core ethical principles that govern Registered Health Professionals. This video is part of the Ethics Mini: Roles & Responsibilities. This week the dynamic Jing duo: Meghan Mari and Rachel Fairweather talk about 2019 marks 100 years of regulation of the health profession in Ontario. It's the end of the year and health benefits may be expiring for many Ontarians. If you're looking to work with a Registered Health Professional... Are you looking to book a massage? Is the person you want to see a Registered Health Professional?