

I'm not a robot

After the rush to get presents under the tree, they say it's the thought that counts, but maybe that's only really true if you can use it. Officially, Black Friday happens on the day after Thanksgiving every year in the U.S. But as of mid-October, a recent survey found that six out of 10 people believe it's the thought that counts, then you won't be offended if you give a gift to someone who can't use it for whatever reason ...
