

I'm not a robot

Texas floods raise questions about emergency alerts and whether staffing cuts. After deadly floodwaters swept through Central At least 110 people are dead with more than 160 people missing as rescue teams in Kerr County officials stressed that their priority is search and rescue operations and avoided answering Former federal officials and outside experts have warned for months that President Donald Trump's deep CBS News' Jason Allen has more on Kerr County's As the recovery efforts continue after devastating flash The large and growing death toll from the flash White House Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt said she is appalled that anyone would consider blaming President Donald Trump ... Newly released audio from the moments the deadly flash Neil Jacobs, President Trump's nominee to lead the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, spoke about improving ... Congressman Lloyd Doggett says he's been trying to get information on how