

I'm not a robot

Downtown Development, UNF's new president and Attorney General candidate Sean Shaw. We are now days away from the two-month-long journey to Tallahassee for state lawmakers. Our preview of the Florida's ... One side says the issue has been handled and nothing illegal happened. The other side says it's time for a legal challenge. Two special elections, two stunners: Democrats flipped a Hillsborough County state Senate seat by 408 votes, and they flipped a ... Floridians are talking about affordability and so are the candidates. Several controversial construction projects are coming up before the In this special episode of "This A former JEA employee testified Monday before the special committee looking into allegations against the utility and its CEO. The cost and availability of child care are a major concern for many News4JAX and the Florida Trib on Thursday obtained new documents from the state attorney's