

I'm not a robot

An investigation is underway after a Rhode Island College student was arrested at the More than a dozen plastic bags containing offensive messages were found. For Lindsey Scannapieco, the day started at 12:01 a.m. with a text message from Rhode Island state official David Patten. The incident reportedly happened at Upper Moreland High School on Tuesday evening. A panel discussion of scholars and community activists on "Racism, Police Brutality and Rebellion in Ferguson, Missouri. Student express their opinion on the flyers. —, RTV6 News brings you the best breaking news coverage in Indiana. News ... Dan Coates - Dozens, Gov. Dan McKee, gather for 'Rally Against Racism' in Providence, after Neo-Nazi A Philadelphia-based development company is accusing two Rhode Island officials of "bizarre, offensive" behavior during a ... The woman was arrested for violating a temporary restraining order that banned her from being on any Los Rios Community ... Two Providence College employees claim they've been subject to racism and discrimination at the school. Stay in the know with ...