

I'm not a robot

Suffolk Police say if there are any further victims they should contact them immediately. Women across the country are speaking out after they say they were sexually abused. Jeremy Finley reports on a North Nashville More victims are stepping forward after a man was arrested. Police say 18 women have come forward claiming the man inappropriately touched them. Officials say Kodi Nathaniel Jackson was working at WBZ-TV's Mike LaCrosse reports. Sexual assault victims urged to come forward after massage therapist arrested