

I'm not a robot

A domestic violence incident led to a large police response in A man is in custody and facing multiple charges after a domestic violence incident early Monday that temporarily shut down a road. Officers found a husband and wife. The road has reopened after a closure between Exits 47 west and 48. Read more: A man was taken into custody on multiple charges after a domestic violence incident early Monday. For more Local News from ... Two state police troopers suffer injuries after crash in A person suffered serious injuries in some kind of an incident that happened in One person is in the hospital after two SUVs crashed in Police have made an arrest after two The road between Exits 47W and 48 is closed, as well as the northbound Exit 47 Eastbound on-ramp, according to the ... Joel Caiza, 18, appeared in court virtually Wednesday, and his bond was reduced. Now he faces more trouble because he ... A man is facing several charges after he allegedly shot someone in the leg Friday morning in