

I'm not a robot

News4Jax retiree Tracy Gaffney is this month's Join Morning Show anchors Melanie Lawson and Jennifer Waugh for this June edition of Sarah's Den Thrift Store and Unique Resource Center in Richmond's Historic Jackson Ward offers food, clothing and mentorship. Kim's Open Door receives this month's Erica Carnegie..and Jim Moyer with Fields Auto Group joins us on the Morning Show to present the award. Gabriella Starling, winner of the Jose Prunet and Monica Vasquez from Project See join us to share how they are helping people with vision issues. Angela McDonald has chosen a life of sacrifice and profound love, dedicating herself to raising four medically disabled children. It is an effort to help people who don't have insurance or can't afford for a routine eye exam or glasses get the health care they need. How you can help make "Dreams Come True". Margaret's Memories is a non-profit bereavement memory box mission project that is dedicated to the memory of Margaret Abigail. Alyson Normandin and her mother are the Hear more about how the Lucas family and how they are helping the community.