

I'm not a robot

It was canceled last year due to the COVID-19 pandemic. It may have been a cloudy day, but you probably noticed rainbows all across downtown. The 34th annual Pride Festival took place at The Festival of Colors is returning this Saturday to The series will kick off May 29. The Kings Band performing the Al Green hit at Downtown Providing the live soundtracks for a wonderfully hot then brisk. More than 2400 volunteer hours go into this annual event, which draws about 20000 people from Southwest Virginia. The 35th annual Local Colors festival is returning to Lots of people were out at the festival during the day Saturday enjoying the nice weather. The Harrison Museum of African American Culture hosted the 33rd annual Henry Street Festival at Took the time to capture outdoor venue