

I'm not a robot

Survey on issues in Roanoke City Schools Reducing crime and homelessness are the The city has hired a company to come up with a revitalization plan. The city received more than 400 online responses for the Comprehensive Plan. The public made their voices heard at a city council meeting in Just as the State of the Union promises to cover a wide range of topics, the opinions of people here in Virginia stretch just as wide.