

I'm not a robot

From Del's to beach parking, we've got you covered with every secret you need to know about the Ocean State. It'll almost be like... In 1790, the United States threatened to invade one of its own states. Congress debated cutting it off as a foreign nation. Providence, Central Falls, and the state of While much of the country celebrates independence on the Starting Thursday, Jan. 1, the state will see an increase in minimum wage, an extension in paid family leave, and new Weird laws in Rhode Island pt. 2 Standing outside a fifth-floor hearing room at Providence City Hall last month, an attorney for a Federal Hill nightclub whose... In this quick guide for conservatives in MDB and Nicole welcome back Senator Tiara Mack to discuss what the A bill that would make officiating local sports games safer is on the table at the 12 News Reporter Lauren Brill is live at the state house with the latest on the debate. Stay in the know with WPRI 12 News. Every state has their fair share of weird