

I'm not a robot

Councilman Mike Getz says the system costs the Officials say more buses and routes are needed to keep up with the growing number of riders. They say these improvements won'tÂ ... Well since then thanks to federal and state funding, Students can ride the bus free of charge whether it's for jobs, clubs or sports. The free rides will last until August 12. The shortage means students risk missing out on valuable class time. The idea can be traced back to September's Veterans for Veterans Stand Down event. Bus riders are being encouraged to give their input during the May 16