

I'm not a robot

State police say for the first seven months of the year, Crash data released by the state of Leaders credit education, engineering, and enforcement for progress, but say more work is needed to protect walkers and cyclists. While the number of fatal crashes We're in the middle of the deadliest time of the year on our roadways. But we're seeing some positive signs as A crackdown on aggressive speeders and DOT messaging campaigns in Preliminary investigations are underway after a deadly wrong-way crash shut A fuel truck burst into flames after crashing into other cars, backing up Four deadly car crashes occurred across Two people are dead after two separate crashes on Interstate 95 in Westbrook Friday morning, according to state police.