

I'm not a robot

Over the weekend, a major expansion of The state is buying 22 new buses with federal grant. There are plans to bring as many as 700 electric buses onto our roadways. The electric buses can go about 200 miles on an overnight charge. In recognition of the country's 250th birthday, CTDOT is offering free and reduced-price The new year has begun without a new Evening rush-hour bus observations in Downtown Hartford, CT. Included are On Friday, U.S. Sen. Chris Murphy and members of the Connecticut marked a major milestone Tuesday as