

I'm not a robot

Advocates, survivors, service providers and Legislators hear bill to improve police response to sexual exploitation and trafficking The event in Augusta on Thursday focused on health care workers and how they can help identify possible victims. toÂ ... Half a million dollars is coming to A work session for the proposal is expected within the next week or so. If you're pulled over and there are drugs in the car, the question of whether you face possession or A new bill would allow survivors to track A Gardiner resident is accused of opening and operating several massage parlors in