

I'm not a robot

Adrian, C5 level spinal cord injury patient, can take steps after epidural stimulation treatment. C6 level patient, Talen, sees incredible trunk improvement with treatment. Braden Pettinger, a 22-year-old Canadian Youssef Amr Abdelgalil Khorshed, an 18-year-old Greta, C5-C6 spinal cord injury patient, taking steps in E-walker. Dustin Shillcox, 1 of the first 4 people to receive an T12 level incomplete patient takes steps after innovative LamiSpine treatment. This video is an excellent demonstration of how our mapping Verita Neuro has been delivering A new study on a medical device is giving hope to those who are living with paralysis.