

I'm not a robot

Affording a home or finding a place to rent has become a serious issue that is impacting Michiganders from all backgrounds, ages, and race is the A new plan has been introduced to expand and improve Secretary Adrienne Todman highlighted President Biden's budget proposal, which includes billions of dollars for home-buildingÂ ... Jennifer Bentley, executive director of the Gov. Gretchen Whitmer joined federal and state legislators, local With high costs continuing across our nation, one major conversation has been about the President Donald Trump is refusing to sign a bipartisan Owning a home is called the American Dream, but it's become so expensive between high home prices and higher interest rates,Â ...