

I'm not a robot

Discover the National Award-Winning Data centers could soon become a familiar sight across northeastern The Board of Supervisors is looking for public comment in regards to proposed amendments and locations for AI-Data Centers. This all stems from a letter submitted to Monroe An AI data center project on Greenfield Road in Lancaster County is in its first phase of development. It's expected to be ... A rural section of Kalamazoo County could soon become a major industrial hub. A new data center is in the proposal stages in ... A proposed ordinance aimed at regulating data center development in East Vincent A New York City-based developer pitched a data center campus to New Castle