

I'm not a robot

North Texas drivers face two significant overnight After a morning of crashes that Portions of several major interstates remained The four injured firefighters are in stable condition, officials said. Drivers should avoid the area and seek alternate routes.