

I'm not a robot

Lauren Roeder talks with Richland Officials emphasis the importance of safety while driving in a construction zone During this pandemic many professions has been deemed as having front-line workers, but The focus is on the fact that while construction is temporary, a mistake while driving through a INDOT plans to host a virtual town hall on Work zone safety tips! Watch for the flashing arrow! Many of us has become accustomed to the