

I'm not a robot

An good look at steelmaking as done during WWII, long before OSHA and EPA. For most iron-making, the essential features are 40 years later, effects of Black Monday still apparent in Neighbors lament the loss of jobs and businesses supported by a once-booming ! U.S. Office of War Information propaganda documentary by prolific American filmmaker Willard Van Dyke: Friday afternoon, Nick Rich presented the footage to Bill Lawson of the Mahoning Valley Historical Society. Frank Marr said the machine shop looks the same as it did 40 years ago when Sheet and Tube announced the Campbell Works ...