

I'm not a robot

Using a condom is the best way to prevent both pregnancy and sexually transmitted infections (STIs), but it must be done correctly. Only 2.5% of Kiwis are gay or bi guys, but almost 90% of HIV infections in New Zealand happen within this group. The good news is ... Learn how to choose the right condom and This video explains how to put on a male condom before you have A short film to show the correct way of using a condom to reduce the risk of discomfort and breakage and therefore preventing ... How to use a condom (Gilbertese)