

I'm not a robot

Better protections for people involved in LD 1695 would require local police departments to adopt standardized protocols when handling sex and Half a million dollars is coming to Hailey Virusso, director of anti-trafficking services at Preble Street, sat down with Pearl Small to discuss how Providing more safe havens hopefully will Legislators hear bill to improve police response to sexual exploitation and trafficking