

I'm not a robot

The demolition is taking down a piece of Mahoning Valley history. Scwebel Baking Company's history and legacy sure live beyond closing in After 120 years in business, the The senator said he was there to tour the facility and celebrate the pensions that the employees at People all across the Mahoning Valley were shocked to learn of the impending closing of