

I'm not a robot

The tattooing industry in Pennsylvania is largely unregulated, meaning just about anyone can become a tattoo artist. J.C. Benton, a spokesman for the Ohio Department of Health, says the proposed law would update state regulations from 1999. The Ink of Hope Act requires all