

I'm not a robot

State lawmakers are considering a bill that would decriminalize New details have come to light about a raid on an alleged There was a recent break in one investigation that led to two massage parlors, suspected of human trafficking, being forced toÂ ... The release of a new list of names of men charged with engaging a Slavery and human trafficking are the terms being used to describe what many people think of as