

I'm not a robot

Over the last six months, several A structure that highlights the heritage of A community came together to save a restaurant that serves more than just food, but the community too. Grant money hopes to revitalize downtown Downtown Platte City sees rise in visitors as As the cold continues throughout the week, some local groups are stepping up to offer warm meals and shelter for people in need. The governor's office announced Monday that 100 The ribbon cutting comes exactly one year after MI Turning Point Stay up to date with our social media: Mid-Michigan NOW on : Much-needed federal funding could be on the way for what some say is a much-needed A mid-Michigan community is coming together to support Murals are works of art that can bring communities together, and the Quaker Oats mural in downtown The Best Bike Repair Shop in Mid-Michigan: House of Wheels